Filed: December 11, 2023

John Robert Howie, Howie Law, PC, Dallas, TX, for Petitioner.

Katherine Carr Esposito, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC, for Respondent.

DECISION ON ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COSTS¹

On January 6, 2021, Angel Thompson filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, *et seq.*² (the "Vaccine Act"). Petitioner alleged that she suffered a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration after receiving an influenza vaccination on October 6, 2020. Petition, ECF No. 1. On August 29, 2023, I issued a decision awarding compensation to Petitioner based on the Respondent's proffer. ECF No. 35.

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all section references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2018).

Petitioner has now filed a motion for attorney's fees and costs, requesting an award of $36,679.16 (representing $35,977.80 in fees plus $701.36 in costs). Petitioner's Application for Fees and Costs ("Motion") filed Sept. 26, 2023, ECF No. 39. In accordance with General Order No. 9, Petitioner filed a signed statement representing that Petitioner incurred no out-of-pocket expenses. ECF No. 39-4.

Respondent reacted to the motion on Sept. 26, 2023, reporting that he is satisfied that the statutory requirements for an award of attorney's fees and costs are met in this case, but deferring resolution of the amount to be awarded to my discretion. Respondent's Response to Motion at 2-3, ECF No. 40. On Sept. 26, 2023, Petitioner stated that she does not intend to file a substantive reply. ECF No. 41.

I have reviewed the billing records submitted with Petitioner's request. In my experience, the request appears reasonable, and I find no cause to reduce the requested hours or rates. Furthermore, Petitioner has provided supporting documentation for all claimed costs. ECF No. 39-3. Respondent offered no specific objection to the rates or amounts sought.

The Vaccine Act permits an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs for successful claimants. Section 15(e). Accordingly, I hereby GRANT Petitioner's Motion for attorney's fees and costs. I award a total of $36,679.16 (representing $35,977.80 in fees plus $701.36 in costs) as a lump sum in the form of a check jointly payable to Petitioner and Petitioner's counsel, John Howie, Jr. In the absence of a timely-filed motion for review (see Appendix B to the Rules of the Court), the Clerk of Court shall enter judgment in accordance with this Decision.³

IT IS SO ORDERED.
